Popular Destinations:

Friday Harbor This quaint seaport rises from the ferry landing & public marina where it’s an easy stroll to the docks, parks, restaurants, unique shops, art galleries & lodging facilities. Be sure to visit The Whale Museum while you’re in town!

English Camp on Garrison Bay was home to British Troops from 1859-72. Tour its solidly built structures & garden before a walk to Roche Harbor or a hike up Mt. Young for spectacular views.

Krystal Acres Alpaca Farm & Country Store, on 80 acres of sunny pastures with massive 100 year old oaks & more than 60 alpacas, offers quiet strolls & shopping for sweaters, coats & cuddly alpaca toys.

Snug Harbor Resort on peaceful Mitchell Bay, offers year-round waterfront accommodations with beautiful interiors, full kitchens & stunning views. Snug Harbor, Mitchell Bay Road stop - driver will drive down to resort upon request.

Lime Kiln Point State Park is the best place to watch for the Endangered Southern Resident orcas traveling along the shoreline sometimes only feet away! Pleasant trails lead to the lighthouse, restored lime kiln or the vista above the park. Outstanding views of Vancouver Island & the Olympics.

Pelindaba Lavender farm is a premier grower of organic lavender plants, distiller of essential oils & hand crafter of lavender products. Stroll through fragrant fields & browse over 200 products.

American Camp was host to American Troops during the Pig War. With nearby beaches, trails, original structures and wide open spaces, it offers a glimpse at the landscape of the “last war” on American soil.

Roche Harbor is an historical village offering waterfront accommodations, dining options, gardens, hiking trails, unique shops, & a country store. Whale watching & kayaking tours available.

Lakedale Resort boasts something for every traveler: lakeside lodge, canvas cabins, log cabins campsites and vintage air-stream! Great fishing, swimming, boating & general store for all your camping needs!

San Juan Vineyards is our island’s only producing vineyard & winery. The tasting room & well-stocked gift shop fill a 1895 one-room schoolhouse which opens onto a sunny deck for enjoying the view & a favorite wine.

Hiking Trails Hike gorgeous trails at Whale Watch Park, English Camp, Mount Young, Mitchell Hill, Sculpture Park, & Roche Harbor Highlands. From easy to strenuous, there are miles of trails from the beaches to the hilltops available for your enjoyment.

San Juan Island Sculpture Park is a 19-acre collection of 150+ unique sculptures in a magnificent outdoor setting of marked trails, pond & stunning views of Westcott Bay. Great place to picnic with the family & dog friendly.
